VOTE!

A friend said, "People, who do not vote, remind me of that cow that was too lazy to graze; we'd put her in a pasture of lush grass. She'd munch the grass she could reach WITHOUT moving, then bawl loud and plaintively for more to be brought to her—she lost her freedom at a Packer's House."

We as a Nation, are prone to let the other fellow do it, but Freedom requires eating and no one can do that for us. Statistics prove that an average of only FIVE persons in ten eat the grass from the entire pasture; the other FIVE bawl for Freedom-food to be brought to them. Shocking! Isn't it? Kiwanis Clubs in many cities organized Battalions for Ballots and changed that percentage to 3 who vote to two who don't. That's better. Be an American Citizen. Discharge your obligations—VOTE.

VOTE! on Nov. 4th. Mark your ballot as your conscience dictates. VOTE! for the men you think are best able to manage the economic and political fortunes of 160 million people.

Burglars Jimmy Window, Take Office Typewriter

Prowlers who jimmied a window entered the office of Dr. William Grubbs and made off with a typewriter. Nancy Starup reported to Torrance police. The office is located at 1329 Sartori Ave. Officers said other windows in the same building also had been jimmied.

Youth Band To Be In Spook Parade

Helping the city of Anaheim celebrate its 29th annual Halloween Festival next Saturday, "Oct. 32," will be the Torrance Area Youth Band under the direction of James Van Dyck. The Torrance band will be among the 26 musical groups to participate in the "Oct. 32" parade, Saturday night. Iron Eyes Cody, Indian television star, will be Grand Marshal.

North Torrance Goblins Ready For Spook Show

Ghosts and goblins will stop over at McMaster Hall tomorrow night during their busy rounds and do a little haunting in Halloween Hollow, an arrangement set up by the North Torrance Civic Improvement Assn. to give the kiddies and their parents a spine-tingling evening of fun.

Occasion for the evening is the association's annual Halloween party which will get underway at 7 p.m. in the recreation center at 174th St. and Yukon Ave.

In addition to the spooks, prizes for the most gruesome, fantastic, prettiest, and most appropriate costumes will be awarded. Elected to judge the parade of costumed gentry are Mayor Mervin Schwab, Frank Carpenter, George Stevens, Judge Otto B. Willett and Dale Isenberg.

Clint Beedin and Mrs. Ilene Allison are co-chairmen of the horror-filled Halloween Hollow which promises a surprise a second to those having the courage to enter.

Other features of the evening include a guessing booth with a surprise booth to all the children and adults guessing.

Refreshments will include doughnuts, chocolate milk, popcorn, lollipops and bubble gum, according to Mrs. W. A. Wright, press chairman of the association.

Friend Takes Pal for Ride; Swipes Watch

Expensive drinks were those which Walter G. Lohwasser purchased for an acquaintance in a bar last week-end, for the friend took him for a ride and robbed him of an $800 ring, a $225 watch and $30 cash, he reported to police.

Lohwasser, of Manhattan Beach, told investigators that he was at a Hermosa Beach bar when a man seated nearby struck up a conversation.

After a few drinks he was invited by the stranger to go for a ride, and after cruising around the Seaside Rancho area, drove into the Hollywood Riviera hills where he was forced to turn over the valuables.

The suspect then drove him back to Hermosa Beach, dropped him off and sped away with the ear lights turned out, according to reports.

Dr. G. Eastham Serves Board of Otolaryngology

Announcement that Dr. Gerald Eastham has been made a Diplomat of the American Board of Otolaryngology was received this week as the Torrance physician was certified by the internationally recognized board.

Dr. Eastham returned from Chicago only two weeks ago where he underwent a series of tests in order to comply with the requirements for membership on the Board.

He also is a vice-president of the Southwest Branch of the County Medical Assn.; secretary of the staff at Harbor General Hospital; vice-president of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce, and is vice-president of the Torrance Kiwanis Club.

Dr. Eastham has practiced here for four years.

FREIGHT TRAIN
One train, made up of all the freight cars owned by railroads in the United States, would extend for a distance of about 14,000 miles.

COAL TRANSPORT
Transportation of coal in the U.S. costs an estimated $1 billion annually, the railroads' reports show.
